Rescinding Approval

1. The Board may rescind approval of an qualifying education activity if the Board finds:
 - 1) Falsification of information submitted for activity approval,
 - 2) A change in approval by Appraiser Qualifications Board of The Appraisal Foundation through its Course Approval Program,
 - 3) Substantial errors and/or deficiencies in the materials or presentation,
 - 4) The materials, theories, and/or methodologies are not current and/or practical,
 - 5) The activity has not been offered for a period of at least five years from the last date of completion submitted to the Board or the approval date if activity has not been offered,
 - 6) There is a change in the qualifications as specified in Section 005.01 of this Chapter under which an instructor was approved by the Board,
 - 7) The instructor(s) responsible for the activity content and presentation is not approved by the Board,
 - 8) The activity content and/or policies are not communicated to the attendee(s) as presented to the Board for approval, or
 - 9) A material violation of the Act or this Title by the education provider or instructor for the activity.

2. If the Board finds reason to rescind its approval of an activity, the Board will provide written notice to the education provider, which shall include a description of the reasons for rescinding approval found by the Board. The education provider shall have 60 days from the date of notice to provide a written response to the Board's notice. If the response is satisfactory to the Board, the Board will not rescind its approval. If the response is not satisfactory to the Board, the Board may rescind approval of the activity. If approval is rescinded, the education provider must file a new application for approval of the qualifying education activity and meet the requirements in place at the time a new application is submitted to the Board.
