Qualifying Education Activity Information

Activity Title: _____

Activity Length (Hours): _____

Except for the valuation bias and fair housing laws and regulations course, each qualifying education activity shall be at least fifteen (15) hours in length. No qualifying education activity is to exceed eight (8) hours of instruction in any day. At least a one-half hour break shall be given to attendee(s) by no later than the end of four(4) hours of instruction in any day. Except for qualifying education included as curriculum in a degree program of an accredited college or university that has had all or part of its curriculum approved by the Appraiser Qualifications Board of The Appraisal Foundation, one semester credit hour received from an accredited college or university equals fifteen (15) classroom hours of instruction. Except for semester hours received from an accredited college or university, education activity hours are determined as follows (examination included):

- For a timed outline in a schedule format, where sixty (60) minutes equals one (1) hour in Coordinated Universal Time, the start time and the end time is utilized to determine the total minutes engaged in instruction. Breaks, meal periods, and time not engaged in instruction are removed. Fifty (50) minutes engaged in instruction out of each sixty (60) minute segment equals one hour.
- For a timed outline in a non-schedule format, where each topic is assigned a specific duration, each minute engaged in instruction is utilized to determine the total minutes engaged in instruction. Fifty (50) minutes engaged in instruction equals one (1) hour.

Activity Setting: ☐ Classroom ☐ Synchronous ☐ Asynchronous ☐ Hybrid

Synchronous educational offering means, the instructor and students interact simultaneously online, similar to a phone call, video chat or live webinar, or web-based meeting; asynchronous educational offering means the instructor and students' interaction is non-simultaneous, and the student progresses at their own pace and follows a structured content and quiz/exam schedule.

General Requirements

1. The Board may at any time conduct an audit of any approved education activity to verify that the activity is being conducted in accordance with the Real Property Appraiser Act and Title 298 as approved. If requested, electronic access will be provided to the Board for any approved distance education activity. The electronic access must provide administrative rights that allow for access to the activity, quizzes, and examinations without having to take the distance education activity in sequential order and without having to take quizzes or examinations to proceed with the activity. In addition, at the Board's request, a transcript of the distance education activity must be provided to the Board.
2. The Board may at any time review activity and instructor materials approved by the Appraiser Qualifications Board of The Appraisal Foundation through its Course Approval Program to verify that the activity and/or instructor(s) meets the requirements of the Real Property Appraiser Act and Title 298 as approved.
3. Approval of activities does not transfer from one education provider to another, unless one education provider obtains the legal rights to all activities of another education provider. The expiration date of any continuing education activity will remain the same as approved under the previous education provider.
4. Education providers and instructors will comply with the Nebraska Private Postsecondary Career Schools Act, NEB. REV. STAT § 85-1601, et seq. as applicable.
5. Knowingly offering or attempting to offer a qualifying or continuing education activity as being approved to a real property appraiser or an applicant, without first obtaining approval of the activity, except for activities required by an accredited degree-awarding college or university for completion of a degree in real estate, if the college or university had its curriculum approved by the Appraiser Qualifications Board as qualifying education is a violation of Neb. Rev. Stat. §76-2238(21).
6. All core curriculum courses shall be approved as qualifying education by the Appraiser Qualifications Board of The Appraisal Foundation through its Course Approval Program or be included as curriculum in a degree program of an accredited college or university that has had all or part of its curriculum approved by the Appraiser Qualifications Board of The Appraisal Foundation.
7. No activity may rely upon a textbook as the primary instructional material. Textbooks are permitted to be used as a background reference for an activity; however, textbooks will not be reviewed as the activity. All activities must contain sufficient stand-alone instructional material supporting the specific activity learning objectives.
8. Any appraisal subject matter elective qualifying education activity must contribute to an attendee's development of real property appraiser related competency in any one or more of the following subjects:
   (1) Real property appraisal practice,
   (2) Valuation methodology and/or techniques,
   (3) Market fundamentals, characteristics, conditions and analysis,
   (4) Real property concepts, characteristics, and analysis
   (5) Real property appraiser and client communication,
   (6) Computation, and/or
   (7) Legal considerations.
9. An instructor for any qualifying education activity, continuing education activity, or supervisory real property appraiser and trainee course, must meet qualifications established pursuant to any other applicable law.
10. The standing of an instructor identified on an education provider's application submitted for approval, who holds a credential as a real property appraiser in Nebraska or any other jurisdiction, may be verified through the Appraiser Registry of the Appraisal Subcommittee for the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council.
11. An instructor for any qualifying education activity, continuing education activity, or supervisory real property appraiser and trainee course, who holds a credential as a real property appraiser in Nebraska or any other jurisdiction shall maintain each credential in good standing in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which each credential is held, not have had a credential revoked, suspended, or have surrendered a credential in lieu of disciplinary action within five years; and not have had disciplinary action taken against his or her credential that may constitute a violation of NEB. REV. STAT. § 76-2238 within five years.
12. Any instructor of the qualifying education fifteen-hour National Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice Course, the continuing education seven-hour National Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice Continuing Education Course, and/or the supervisory real property appraiser and trainee course, must be an AQB Certified USPAP Instructor by the Appraiser Qualifications Board of The Appraisal Foundation.
13. An instructor for any qualifying education activity, must satisfy the education provider's instructor policy that requires the use of instructors who meet the requirements of the Nebraska Real Property Appraiser Act and 298 NAC Chapter 6, § 005.

I hereby attest that I have included all required materials, complied with all the listed requirements, completed the submitted application in its entirety, and that all statements and materials are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand that, should this application be found to be incomplete, that it may be considered invalid and be returned. Furthermore, I understand that if the Board finds that one or more statements made in this application, or materials submitted with this application, are not true and correct, the Board may deny the application.

Rescinding Approval

1. The Board may rescind approval of a qualifying education activity if the Board finds:
    1) Falsification of information submitted for activity approval,
    2) A change in approval by Appraiser Qualifications Board of The Appraisal Foundation through its Course Approval Program,
    3) A change in the status of the 298 NAC Chapter 6, § 001.15 qualifications under which a distance education activity was approved,
    4) Substantial errors and/or deficiencies in the materials or presentation,
    5) The materials, theories, and/or methodologies are not current and/or practical,
    6) The activity has not been offered for a period of at least five (5) years from the last date of completion or the approval date if activity has not been offered,
    7) The instructor(s) responsible for the activity content and presentation do not meet the qualifications specified in 298 NAC Chapter 6, § 005,
    8) The activity content and/or policies are not communicated or administered as approved,
    9) A material violation of the Real Property Appraiser Act or Title 298 by the education provider or instructor for the activity, or
    10) There is a change in the secondary provider's rights to the activity.
2. If reason to rescind approval of an activity is found, a written notice shall be made to the education provider that includes a description of the reason(s) for rescinding approval. The education provider has sixty (60) days from the date of notice to provide a written response. If the response is satisfactory to the Board, the Board will not rescind its approval. If the response is not satisfactory to the Board, or no response is received, the Board may rescind approval of the activity. If approval is rescinded, the education provider may file a new application for approval of the qualifying education activity, and if so, meet the requirements in place at the time a new application is submitted to the Board.
3. Nothing in 298 NAC Chapter 6 may be construed to preclude education providers from surrendering approval of education activities.
