

Memo from the Board to Nebraska Real Property Appraisers

March 27, 2014

NEBRASKA REAL PROPERTY APPRAISER BOARD HIRES NATASHA OLSEN AS BUSINESS AND EDUCATION SPECIALIST

By Tyler Kohtz, Director

Natasha Olsen has been hired by the Nebraska Real Property Appraiser Board as its new Business and Education Specialist. This position is responsible for conducting the agency's daily accounting activities, office operations, and personnel functions. In addition, this position executes the agency's education and public information programs. Ms. Olsen, originally from O'Neill, Nebraska, obtained her Bachelor's degree from Wayne State College in Business Administration, Marketing, and Advertising.

Before joining the Board, Ms. Olsen ran a successful childcare business and stayed home with her children. She has built an extensive resume with a wide range of experience, which includes office management, marketing, advertising, budgeting, curriculum development, and staff management. Natasha, her husband, and three children reside in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Olsen states, "I've enjoyed getting back into an office environment and with a team of professionals that work so hard to promote integrity in the appraiser field. I am excited to grow as a professional with the Nebraska Real Property Appraiser Board."
